AARP Tax Preparation

February 4 through April 17, 2012

The Library will again welcome AARP volunteers to help individuals and couples prepare their income taxes beginning on Saturday, February 4. There is no age limitation. The volunteers will be here from 4:00 to 8:00pm Tuesday evenings and from 12:00 noon to 4:00p.m. on Saturday afternoons. Reservations for this free service must be made in person at the Adult Reference Desk.

We also have information on other locations
offering AARP tax assistance.

Library Services

Free Digital Audiobooks

The Eules Library offers digital audiobooks which can be downloaded to an iPod, iPhone, MP3 player or other portable devices through OneClickdigital from Recorded Books. The collection includes popular novels, bestselling authors, non-fiction, classics and book club favorites. Access the OneClickdigital link on the library website to create a free account. A new free Mac-compatible version of the OneClickdigital Media Manager is now available which can be downloaded at Apple's App store. Ask at the Reference Desk for more information.

Help for Job Seekers

Resume Maker, available through the Eules Library website, is a free online resume builder and career center that allows users to create an account to save work and preferences within the database.

Features include a Resume and Letter Guide, Interview & Salary Tips, and Job Search Tools.

Resume Maker can be accessed on the library computers or through remote access through the Eules Library Catalog link under the "Career Center" heading on the left side of the page.

Job Kiosk at the Eules Public Library is a free standing display that offers free access to job listings concentrating on local and regional openings. Listings are updated daily and users can instantly view, print, email, text and apply for jobs. It can also be accessed on the library computers or by remote access through the Eules Library Catalog link under the "Career Center" heading. For more information stop by the Reference Desk.
